EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

We, as Seventh-day Adventists, believe in the education of the whole person. Education is not limited to the mere development of the intellect. Furthermore, this educational process is a continuing experience throughout the life of the individual. The home, the school, the church and the community participate in this process of education.

The primary goal of our school is to prepare students for useful work on earth and a home in heaven by teaching them to accept Christ as their personal Savior, to allow the Holy Spirit to transform their lives, and to fulfill Christ's commission of preaching the gospel to the entire world.

Our objectives of Adventist Christian education are:

- To provide each student with opportunities for high scholastic achievement.
- To encourage each student to recognize and appreciate God as the Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer of all life: Teaching and demonstrating that the Christian life is the happiest way of life; showing love, concern, and compassion for all people, and persuading students that the best way to lead is by example.
- To remember that our bodies are the temples of God and learn to live healthy lives.

MISSION STATEMENT

The school's mission is to increase the student's capacity for knowing God and the power to excel spiritually and academically for the service of others.

ADMISSIONS

This school is open to all persons who possess a good moral character and demonstrate both reverence and a willingness to wholeheartedly observe all the regulations of the school. Membership in the Seventh-day Adventist Church is not required, but it is understood that everyone who is accepted thereby pledges to observe the regulations of the school and respect the standards and ideals of the denomination. Seventh-day Adventist schools have not been established for the purpose of offering special education; therefore they are unable to accept students who have serious physical, scholastic, or behavioral problems.

Trial Status

We wish each student to have a successful experience at Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School. Therefore, we are careful with whom we accept into our student body. Each new student will be placed on trial status for the first nine weeks they are in attendance. At the conclusion of the nine-week period the student will be placed on regular status unless parents are otherwise notified. If a student needs to stay on a trial status the parents will be notified and an action plan will be drawn up to clarify and correct any problem. If the necessary adjustments have not been made, the parent will be asked to withdraw their child.

Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin, to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. Furthermore, this institution does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national, or ethnic origin in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship programs, and athletic or extra-curricular programs. In order to ensure the best educational environment, prospective students may be screened through testing, recommendation forms, and staff evaluations. The criteria includes student conduct, motivation, scholastics, and parental support.

Students entering kindergarten must be 5 years old on or before August 15, and students entering first grade must be 6 years old. All kindergarten students must be toilet trained. Requests for exceptions to this policy must be given to the principal and submitted to the Education Department of the Carolina Conference for an evaluation of both scholastic capabilities and developmental maturity. The student will be accepted only by written permission from the Education Department.

APPLICATION

All pupils enrolling at Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School for the first time must furnish:

- a. Completed application form with application fee
- b. Copy of birth certificate
- c. Copy of Social Security Card
- d. Current record of up-to-date immunizations
- e. Current physical examination performed by a licensed physician (by September 15)
- f. Record request with previous school's address and phone number.

Grade placement for students transferring from home schools may be dependent upon the results of a standardized placement test as well as subsequent review by the staff. Final placement will be determined within one month of entrance.

Students whose records are not received within two weeks of entrance will be subject to the grade placement policy stated above.

- All student records are kept in locked files in the office.
- Discipline issues are reported to the parents of the involved students only and not to the general student body or to other parents.
- If and when it becomes necessary to take such issues beyond the teacher, principal, and parent, it is handled by the School Board.

SCHOOL HOURS

Monday – Thursday 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Friday – 8:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

ATTENDANCE

Students at Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School are to be present and on time for all classes, activities, and appointments. Regular attendance develops patterns of behavior essential to professional and personal success in life. Parents or legal guardians have the responsibility for ensuring that students attend and remain at school daily. Numerous studies link attendance with student achievement, therefore increased student attendance will result in improved student achievement.

Absences: If a student misses more than 15% of a class (i.e., six days per nine-week period) the teacher will determine how or if the missed work may be completed. The classroom teacher will also determine time constraints for making up work for excused or unexcused absences.

Procedure to have absences/tardinesses recorded as excused: If a student has been absent/tardy, to excuse those absences/tardinesses, he/she must bring a valid written note upon return to school giving the reason for absence and signed by the student's parent or guardian. If a signed note is not received, the absence/tardy will be recorded as unexcused.

Five (5) unexcused tardinesses - A letter to alert parents will be sent by administration.

Seven (7) unexcused tardinesses - A meeting with the principal, teacher, and parents will be scheduled.

Ten (10) unexcused tardinesses - Parents will be required to come before the Mills River SDA School Board with a plan of action.

Excused Absences or Tardinesses:

The following examples are reasons for pupil absences, tardiness, and early departure which shall be considered by this policy to be excused:

- Personal illness, doctor/dentist, physical therapy and/or hospital appointment
- Extended illness (three consecutive days or more) or chronic health condition as documented by a parent's or physician's note. (All medical excuses written by the doctor shall be submitted within 24 hours of the student's return to school in order to be considered an excused absence. Otherwise they will remain unexcused absences).
- Family illness
- Death in the immediate family
- In-school disciplinary actions
- Religious observance (Holidays only)
- Required court appearance with note from court
- Military obligations
- School-sanctioned trips, activities, or athletic events
- Family trips pre-arranged with the teacher

Student Release during School Hours

Dismissal during school hours must be authorized by office personnel. The following procedure will help guarantee accountability of all students during the regular school hours:

1. If for some reason a child must leave school early, the student must bring a note from parents indicating such action.
2. Upon arrival at school, the note should be given to the teacher so he/she is aware of the departure.
3. Parents must report to the teacher to remove their child from school.

Notification of Excessive Absences

The State of North Carolina requires that every student in the state between the ages of seven (or younger if enrolled) and sixteen years attend school. The Compulsory Attendance Law requires that the school notify parents of excessive absences under the following conditions:

1. After six unexcused absences, the principal shall notify the parent/guardian of the student's excessive number of unlawful absences from school. The notification to the parent shall be by mail and shall state that the parent/guardian may be in violation of the North Carolina Compulsory Attendance Law and may be prosecuted if the absences cannot be justified under the attendance policies (G.S. 115 C-378).
2. If a student has ten accumulated unlawful absences in a school term, the student's parent/guardian shall be notified by certified mail of the student's excessive number of unlawful absences. If the principal determines that the parent/guardian has not made a good effort to comply with the law, he/she will notify the proper authorities.

BEFORE AND AFTER SCHOOL CARE

No before or after school care will be provided at the school. No student should arrive at school before 7:45 a.m. unless specific arrangements have been made. At the end of the school day, parents are requested to wait outside of the classroom until the teacher opens the door for dismissal. All students remaining after 3:30 p.m., or 2:30 p.m. on Fridays, will be charged $1.00 per minute per student until picked up. This will not be the case if previous and satisfactory arrangements are made ahead of time.

WEATHER BULLETINS

In case of snow or ice, the teacher(s) will inform parents of school cancellations or delayed starting time via a Calling Post phone call.

HEALTH

Hygiene

Personal hygiene is necessary for a student's total well-being. Important homework includes daily bathing, clean clothes, well-groomed hair, clean fingernails, brushed teeth, and a good breakfast. Each child should have between eight and ten hours of sleep nightly in order to do his best work.

Breakfast

Students who skip breakfast tend to experience a lack of concentration long before lunchtime arrives. Your student(s) need this important learning tool in a timely fashion so they can be finished before arriving at school.

Diet

Since we believe and teach that our bodies are the temples of God, we feel we are responsible to care for them in the best possible way. We require that all caffeine beverages and unclean meats be excluded from lunches. (As stated in Leviticus 11, unclean meats include: pepperoni, ham, pork, bacon, shellfish of any kind, or fish without fins and scales.) We request that no soft drinks at all be sent to school. By minimizing products that contain large amounts of sugar, including soft drinks, you may greatly increase the concentration level of your student in the classroom.

Medications

The following policy has been developed to ensure safe storage and distribution of medication during school and aftercare hours:

- Students will not be allowed to keep medications of any type, including over-the-counter medications, in their desk, locker, or book bag.
- All medications must be in their original container with a childproof cap. Parents are responsible for ensuring that medication is not expired.
- A signed consent form will be required in order for any medication to be taken or administered. This form must be signed by the parent every day a medication is to be taken.
- Medications will be logged on the consent form as soon as they are taken, and the staff member will sign for each dose. A copy will be provided to the parents at the end of the day. The original form will be retained in the school office.
- For a medication which must be given on a daily, continuous basis, the parent must complete a Daily Medication Log which states the name of the medication, time to be given and amount. Each day the medication is given the staff responsible will sign their name with the time and dosage as specified on the medication log. It is the responsibility of the parent to provide notification if the administration parameters change. It is also the responsibility of the parent to - be aware and provide medication refills when needed. Any equipment or other necessary items to administer the medication must be provided by the parent.

- We ask that parents request that their children's physician prescribe medications that do not require doses during school hours whenever possible.

Illness

Parents of any student with a fever, with pinkeye, or with lice will be called to pick up the student. The student must be fever free without medication for 24 hours before returning to school. A temperature of 100 degrees shall constitute a fever. In the case of pinkeye or strep, the student may return twenty-four hours after the first dose of antibiotics or as allowed by physician.

At any time during the school year the principal or teachers may inspect any student for head lice. If nits or lice are identified during inspection the student will be removed from the classroom and their parents or guardian will be called to come to the school to pick up the student. Verbal instructions as well as written instructions will be given to the parent before the student leaves the building.

There is no specific exclusion time from school for head lice. Some parents are able to accomplish the treatment in one day. It should not take more than a few days. Exclusion for lice should not be used to miss school for an extended period of time.

After the student has been cleared to return to class the principal will continue to check for nits because of the risk of re-infestation if the student's environment was not properly treated. The student will be checked as often as deemed necessary by the principal.

Allergies

It is the responsibility of the parents/guardians to notify the school of any known allergies.

STATEMENT OF ASBESTOS

No ACBM (asbestos-containing building materials) was used in the original construction of the school building. No modifications have been made since the original construction that used ACBM.

Parents, teachers, and other building occupants are hereby notified that the accredited inspector's statement of no ACBM is on file in the school office. This statement is available for inspection as required per Sections 763.84© and 763(g)(4) of the AHERA regulations.

SCHOOL INSURANCE

Student accident insurance is considered secondary-coverage as it provides for minimal payments only after the family insurance coverage is expended, or if there is no other primary insurance coverage. Coverage is for most inconsequential injuries incurred while in attendance at school. It does not cover medical expenses incurred by causes other than accidents and is insufficient for major accident expenses. These situations must be paid by the parents or sponsors and/or the family's insurance policy. A student accident report must be filed when the accident occurs to receive benefits.

CURRICULUM

The curriculum at all levels reflects the philosophy and objectives of Seventh-day Adventist education. It incorporates an awareness of the principles of human growth and development, encouraging, guiding and sustaining the students as they seek to understand themselves and to relate to their fellow human beings and to their Creator. The textbooks and course material used throughout the school are in compliance with the recommendations of the Office of Education for the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, which is the central coordination office for all schools operated by the Seventh-day Adventist Church throughout the world.

Subjects offered at Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School include: Bible, reading, math, language arts, the sciences, social studies/history, art, music, choir, physical education and computer skills.

Progress Reports

The school year is divided into four quarters or grading periods. Two quarters make up one semester. Progress reports will be issued at the end of each quarter. Grades will be reported in the following manner:

Grades K-2

E - Excellent

S - Satisfactory

N - Needs improvement

Grades 3-8

A - 90%-100%

B - 80%-89%

C - 70%-79%

D - 60%-69%

F - 0%-59%

Incomplete Assignments

If a student is unable to complete his/her assignments by the end of the grading period, the teacher has the option to give him/her an incomplete. This incomplete must be cleared within two weeks after the end of the grading period, or the incomplete assignments will be given a failing grade. Other options and/or alternatives will be according to teacher discretion.

RETENTION

The teacher(s) of Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School are committed to working with each student individually, as much as possible, to ensure that the student understands and masters new concepts as they are presented. Due to the diversity of cognitive abilities and learning styles, however, some students are slower than others in their academic progress. When students fall behind one grade level or more, a meeting may be called to discuss possible home and/or school interventions. If, after various interventions are tried, the student continues to lag behind academically, it may be necessary to retain the student. This decision is made by consensus of the classroom teacher(s), the parents, and the principal.

The following will be considered for retention:

- students in first grade who have not mastered minimum reading or math requirements
- students who have accumulated excessive absences
- students who have demonstrated a decided lack of effort and have failing grades.

In certain instances where a student demonstrates severe deficits academically, emotionally, and/or behaviorally, it may be recommended that the parents arrange for a psycho-educational assessment by a certified school psychologist at the local public school district to determine if there are serious physical, learning, emotional, and/or behavioral disabilities which may affect the student's ability to learn.

FIELD TRIPS / CLASS TRIPS

Field and class trips are an integral part of the educational experience at Mills River SDA School. Students are required to participate in these trips. For some trips, a fee is assessed. The school will endeavor to keep costs to a minimum and will give as much advance notice as possible. Mills River SDA School Standards of Conduct and

Dress will be observed during these trips and the school t-shirt is required for all field trips.

Prior to participating in a trip, the faculty must have written permission from the student's parent(s) or guardian(s) on the form provided by the Mills River SDA School. Parents providing transportation for field trips are asked to provide proof of liability insurance, and to assure correct use of seatbelts as required by North Carolina law.

No siblings will be allowed on field/class trips except by invitation of the teacher.

Field trips are designed for students. All students are assured of a seat. Additional adults may benefit the educational and social experience of the trip. From an educational perspective, a teacher must consider the following when inviting adult chaperons on a field trip:

1. Cooperation with Leadership -This is vital for safety and an enjoyable time off campus.
2. Relationship with all Students – Each parent expects a teacher to protect their child in all ways.
3. Ability to Assist- Capabilities that render the adult an asset to learning and safety are necessary.
4. Size of the Group - Room in the vehicles and at the destination is important. The size of the group affects scheduling.
5. Previous Participation - Parents who haven't had a chance to go before should be worked in, if they wish to go.

GUM POLICY

Gum chewing is not allowed on the school premises at any time. Non-compliance will result in a disciplinary action.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

During the course of the school year, disagreements may arise that if not handled in a responsible and respectable way, have the potential of becoming issues that affect the entire school family. Critical, sarcastic, judgmental, and negative remarks made about the school, teaching staff, students, or other persons associated with the school or church can cause even greater difficulties and may hinder resolutions to the problem. Hurt feelings, lost friendships, and damaged reputations are not a positive Christian witness to the community and should not find a place in God's family.

It is the responsibility of all who are a part of the school or church to use effective communication and earnest prayer in dealing with all misunderstandings and/or disagreements. In the event that a concern is not being resolved as a parent, student or staff member feels it should be, you are encouraged to follow the steps in Matthew 18, which may include the following: teacher, school board chairman or pastor.

DRESS CODE

Parental help in monitoring student dress BEFORE arrival at school is anticipated.

While dress is ultimately an individual matter, good sense and good taste require that certain standards be taken into consideration. Parents and/or students may not always agree with the standards of the school, but cooperation in this matter is necessary if a student is to remain in school.

**THE DRESS CODE APPLIES TO ALL SCHOOL FUNCTIONS****

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

- Any other electronic item that a staff member considers to be disruptive

All staff members have the right to confiscate any electronic item. Any confiscated items will be returned to a parent. If there is a legitimate need to have one of the items listed above at school, this will need to be approved by administration prior to bringing the item onto school grounds.

CELL PHONES

Students with cell phones must abide by the following procedures:

1. Parents must sign an agreement with the school's cell phone policy that gives permission for their student to have a cell phone.
2. Students with a cell phone must turn it in to their teacher daily. The teacher will keep the phone during the day and give it back to the student upon dismissal.
3. Cell phone violations: Consequence of cell phone violation is as follows: (This is for approved cell phones as signed by parent.)
  - A. The first infraction will be a warning to the student.

  - C. The third infraction the student will not be allowed to bring a cell phone to school for the remainder of the school year.
4. Cell phones must also be given to the teacher on field trip days and will be returned at the end of the school day.

These rules are needed to ensure the learning environment is protected from disruption, and for the privacy of other students.

COMPUTER USE AGREEMENT

All families must obtain an Acceptable Use Policy from the office, read it, sign it, and return it before the student is allowed to use any technology on the school grounds.

DISCIPLINE

The Mills River SDA School is dedicated to the task of not only teaching students how to become productive adults, but also how to live in Christ and for Christ in today's world. Emphasis is placed on self-discipline and self-respect as well as respect for God, authority and others. In order to strive to reach the goals of our school, the behaviors listed in the School Rules (following) will not be permitted.

The goal of the Mills River SDA School is to educate each child to the best of his ability. To reach this goal, it is necessary that the school function within a disruption-free, safe environment. The major means by which the school can provide this type of environment is to minimize the causes of misbehavior and work to prevent its occurrence.

Teachers will strive to solve their own classroom discipline problems in their own manner, using their own methods, which may include time-outs, behavior contracts, keeping students for their own after-school detention, parental phone calls and conferences, writing of papers, etc.

The Mills River SDA school board reserves the right to make policy additions, deletions, and/or modifications during the school term that are deemed appropriate for a more effective school program and learning environment.

In certain cases involving student discipline, the following may apply:

1. The principal/head teacher reserves the right to immediately suspend any student who he/she feels is threatening the health and welfare of fellow students and/or teachers.
2. Such an emergency suspension will be in effect until a school board meeting is called to attempt a resolution.
3. Lack of parental cooperation may result in suspension or expulsion.
4. The teacher reserves the right to speak with the parent if need be, along with another adult present, about said suspension.

Classes are not to be disrupted by parents wishing to speak with the teacher/principal regarding student progress, discipline problems, etc. Parents must make an appointment to speak with the teacher/principal in private.

At no time should a confrontation between a parent and teacher, or another parent, be witnessed by any student.

It is the intent of the school board and staff/faculty to provide a safe and enriching school environment that teaches young people how to interact with others and to resolve differences, challenges and conflicts in a positive way. Therefore, if all options have been exhausted in resolving a situation, and continual discord and negative comments are still being made by those involved, then a meeting of the school board will be held to determine if the parents and student(s) involved should be requested to find an alternate educational program.

SCHOOL RULES

This list of behaviors and actions are minimum guidelines for a smoothly operating school year. The list is non all-inclusive and other behaviors will be handled as they occur. Methods of handling unacceptable behaviors in addition to the disciplinary code will be utilized as they are thought to be needed.

Bullying is a repeated verbal, psychological, or physical act of aggression toward another individual. We say that a student is even being bullied or picked on when another student says or draws nasty or unpleasant things on paper, or makes repeated negative contact or comments toward or about another student. Bullying also occurs when a student is ignored or avoided by other students with hurtful intentions. Bullying is inappropriate behavior, and will NOT be tolerated under any circumstances.

Threats

Please note that all information received by the school administration and/or staff regarding a student(s) who threatens (even casually or in jest) a teacher, staff member, or another student with personal injury or death, or who threatens major property damage, will be treated in a serious manner by the school administration, school board, and the Carolina Conference Education Office. When it is confirmed that any such action was intended or has taken place, the student(s) will be immediately removed from the school until further notice by the school board and/or conference education office.

CUSTODY OF CHILDREN

It is the policy of Mills River SDA School to respect the rights of all parents as they relate to visiting a child or picking a child up from school. If the custody/visitation rights of a parent have been terminated by court order, it is the responsibility of the custodial parent to provide Mills River SDA School with a copy of the court order. Additionally, Mills River SDA School requests that parents not involve the faculty and staff in any custody proceedings. As representatives of the school, teachers or staff will not involve themselves in any court proceedings involving students of the school without prior consent of the school board.

HANDBOOK

This handbook is published under the authorization of the school board of Mills River Seventh-day Adventist School. Should subjective interpretations of school policy be necessary, the teacher may make that interpretation. If that interpretation is questioned or disputed by a student, parent or guardian, the principal may give the interpretation. The school board reserves the right to make final interpretations of school policy and to edit policy when and were necessary. The school reserves the right to make clear any interpretation of policy written or implied and is not subject to legal interpretation of wording or intention. The school board reserves the right to change and/or add to any policy or regulation contained in this book. As these changes are made, parents will be notified through the school parent letter. We encourage parents to read carefully all regulations. Great responsibility rests upon our parents in carrying out the Christian principles upon which our school operates.
